"Michelle is one of the kindest and warmest people I have ever had the pleasure of meeting. Michelle has such a powerful presence on stage and makes you feel as if she is talking solely to you. I've invited Michelle to speak to a number of my groups and every time, she has over-delivered on what I was expecting from her. Her warmth is infectious, both in person and online, and my groups have instantly trusted her. She has a magic way of delivering straight-talking, clever advice while never making her audience feel inadequate or inferior. However what I love most about her speaking style is the absolute certainty the audience have that she is in their corner, and fully invested in their continued success.
