

90 Day Business Boost

If you're ready to supercharge your next 90 Days to propel your business forward, then I want to make that happen for you.

Perhaps you have a new service to develop, a book launch looming, a new course to create, or a baby on its way? We'll find a way to get it done without everything else (including you) falling to pieces.

Here's how:

KICK OFF: DISCOVERY & PLANNING

We'll begin with a deep dive into your business and explore how it currently functions.

What's working? What's not?
What's worth pursuing? What's been overlooked?
Where are things more complicated than they need to be?
And most importantly, what's preventing you from realising your dreams?

We will then get clear on what it is that you want to achieve and set specific, measurable goals. We'll establish the priorities for the next 90 Days and formulate a Plan with actionable tasks to turn your vision into reality.

This plan will be as unique as you are - taking into consideration the reality of your business and life.

You will leave the session feeling energised and confident of your pathway forward, knowing that you have my support to keep you on track.

ACTIVATION

We will reconnect within 2 weeks of our Kick Off Session to ensure you are set up to activate your plan once you are back in the real world.

MOMENTUM

I provide that all important momentum and accountability propel your business forward. We will meet over 4 x 1 hr sessions on Zoom where we review your goals, work through challenges, celebrate success and set actions for the weeks ahead. It's not just about support, advice and guidance - this is about transforming the way you operate in your business and life.

These sessions are held 2 - 4 weeks apart to maintain momentum.

SOS SUPPORT

You will also have me on call over the 90 Day period to be your sounding board, to workshop ideas or focus your energy when you are feeling challenged in between sessions.
